This excursion leads you from Unac, in the bottom of the Ariège valley, to Chioula plateau , marvelous view-point from where you admire all the Pyrenees. Quietly installed in those mountains, Chioula refuge is a friendly shelter.

During the second day you'll do a small or great walk, as you like because there is an important network of very easy paths on the plate.

The first and the third day, slopes are rather important and the children can't ride the donkeys. That's why we recommend this trek if your children are more than 7 years old.

All inclusive package, half board or full board

- The steps day by day

Day 1 : from Unac (700 m) to Refuge du Chioula (1600 m) 5h

You leave the bottom of the valley where Unac is sheltered to reach the first heights and discover a wonderful panorama of the Pyrenean range.
