Following a stony way, you climb to En Beys lake and refuge, in the middle of Orlu National Reserve (2000m).

Famous for its wild fauna, the Reserve is a natural laboratory to study and observe isards and marmots.

You can make marvelous excursions all around the lake, looking for wild fauna but, there are too much rocks, so the donkeys can't go with you: they wait for you near the refuge, in their little cattle fence. During the main part of this trek, the path is very steep. So, children can't ride the donkeys.

Dogs prohibited.

All inclusive package, half board or full board

With the all inclusive package, you eat and sleep in an accommodation each night (hotel, refuge and gite). You have 1 donkey for 2 or 3 people. We take charge of your booking in accommodations.

Day 1 : from Fanguil parking at Orlu (1000m) to En Beys lake (1954m) 4h30

Fairly long and difficult because of the great ascent. Fortunately, all your efforts will be rewarded when getting to Orlu National Reserve, wide natural space, privileged observation spot of wild animals. You enjoy the high mountain atmosphere: summer flocks with ringing bells, swift isards, marmot whistling, rhododendrons flowering round the lake.

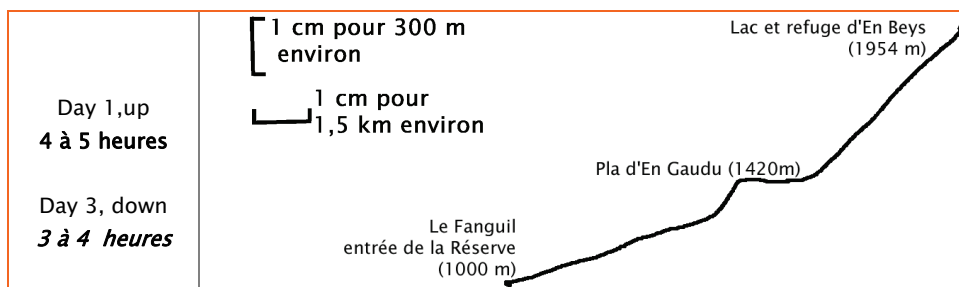

You are welcomed at the Refuge d'En Beys with dormitories, located near the lake. +33(0)5 61.64.24.24

Beyond the En Beys refuge, the paths are not suitable for donkeys. So you'll leave them in the park, and walk for a day or a few hours, discovering lakes, flora, and fauna, both particularly abundant.

Day 3 : from En Beys Refuge (1954 m) to Fanguil parking at Orlu (1000m) 3h30
